Greensboro Four Letter

Dear fellow students,

For every effective organization there is a level of leadership. As far as we're concerned, this was the purpose of the Students Executive Committee for Justice. This committee is composed of the original formulators of this passive resistance movement now taking place and several other students who are quite reliable in conducting adequate guidance. And, since this committee has already drafted "plans-of-actions- to accomplish this objective and possess a more detailed knowledge of what is taking place "behind the scene", we feel that the responsibility of leadership should fall upon this group of persons. We sincerely hope that you will fully agree and cooperate with us in this respect.

A movement has been made on Kress' to obtain similar results expected from Woolworth. We are requesting that the students will fully support these movements. However, we also request that no students shall go over the heads of the committee and start another such movement in that we must concentrate our efforts toward breaking down these places and we're certain that with success, the others will eventually fall in line.

As much as we desire the full cooperation of all students, we must insist that we show no violence under any circumstances. The insults received cannot harm us in anyway and any assault or any student will be dealt with immediately by the police department who have promised that there will be protection for ALL persons with no partisanship. We are asking that you will take no weapons with you such as knives, etc., but a Bible in its place.

The agitators who are heckling our group now are organized primarily for the purpose of "picking a fight." But if this happens, all of our previous work and desires are lost. Therefore, we beg that you shall completely ignore these persons and neglect the freak accidents. Keep a "cool" head and we're always sure of being in the right.

You are aware of the support received yesterday from the Woman's College students and this is self-evidence that the Negroes are not alone. Let us be certain that we do not let these people down as well as ourselves by losing ground in anyway.

INSTRUCTIONS

- (1) Students will wear dress attire or other pertinent clothing. (Young ladies are urged to look their best and gentlemen wear ties).
- (2) All students going down will report to the Library dispatcher so as to make certain that we do not become so crowded until we hinder the stores businesses.
- (3) If the persons who arrive later or after the first shift has come, they will seek to relieve those who desire to be; if not, they will quietly check with the spokesman and then leave quietly.
- (4) At no time will we fight back with words or physically, but will do so by our sitting.

We must remember that we are now well known in the eyes of the world and we must do nothing to hurt the chances of the minority races nor rob the people who sympathize with us of the loyal support they are giving us.

again may we strongly advocate, NO VIOLENCE NOR DRINKING WHILE WE ARE DOWN TOWN OR IN THE EYES OF THE PUBLIC. We know that we will receive your loyal support in our drive for justice and we hope that you will weigh this letter carefully and cooperate fully.
